SHOW ME A SIGN

A message from Rev. Brian Episcopo:

When the rest of the world assumes “if money comes to me, it is FOR me” we believe if money comes to us, it doesn’t belong to us: we are managers (Matthew 25). When the rest of the world assumes “losing” is losing, we believe losing is how we find our life (Luke 17:33). When the world believes we “own” things, Christians believe we “own” nothing, and therefore have peace knowing we can’t “lose” anything (1 Tim. 6:7). When the world assumes nothing is certain, Christians know there is 100% chance of blessing on the other side of obedience to God with anything including our money (Matt 6:33). After all, it is always (100% of the time) better to obey God than disobey Him. So while the world gets anxious about money, Christians get cheerful about giving it away (2 Cor. 9:6-7).

We will be updating you in May on the total commitments submitted and a general update on the campaign, so be sure to stay tuned!
