A message from Rev. AJ Dudek,

Well summer is upon us! It was a long winter and wild spring (if we ever had one). The kids are done with school and our calendars are filling up, if not already full. Summer is a great time to try and relax, enjoy some time with our families, and at least try to take advantage of some warm weather. These are all good things but we must be very conscious of what feeds our affections.

What are we praising over the next three months? What are we counting on to give us joy and refreshment? These are questions that I ask myself as I look at my Google Calendar. Like mine, your families calendar is booked and I wanted to encourage you to not "misplace your first love." Keep Christ at the center of all enjoyment, relaxation, and time with your family. Enjoy the blessings that God has given you, so you don't forget who you are and where you've come from.
